CCF's Learning for Life fund

In poor areas around the world, there's never a shortage of children eager to learn, but there is a shortage of resources. Education must be accessible for these children if our work against poverty is to have significant success. Your gift to our Learning for Life fund will help provide education programs beyond sponsorship for children in need.

Thank you for your advance sponsorship donation. One or more of your sponsorships is current through March 2009.

Just a Reminder

Success can be defined by the hope that is planted in the hearts of scores of children each and every day. Your compassion increases our success. Thank you!

CCF offers automatic giving options to save you time and postage while helping us lower our processing costs. For more information, please call 1-800-776-6767.
